HOW TO MAKE A GIFT 148

All charities listed have been confirmed by the Office of Personnel Management Office of CFC Operations as being listed in the IRS database of 501(c)3 organizations as of August 2008.

Combined Federal Campaign (CFC)

The mission of the CFC is to support and to promote philanthropy through a voluntary program that is employee-focused, cost-efficient and effective in providing all Federal employees the opportunity to improve the quality of life for all.

What is the CFC?

The Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) is the only authorized solicitation of Federal employees in their workplaces on behalf of approved charitable organizations.

The CFC began in the early 1960's to coordinate the fundraising efforts of various charitable organizations so that the Federal donor would only be solicited once in the workplace and have the opportunity to make charitable contributions through payroll deduction.

Federal employees continue to make the CFC the largest and most successful workplace philanthropic fundraiser in the world. Continuing a long-standing tradition of selfless giving, in 2006, Federal employees raised over $273 million dollars for charitable causes around the world.

Structure of the CFC

The CFC is made up of local campaigns that organize the annual fund raising effort in Federal workplaces in the United States and abroad.

Each local campaign is managed by a Local Federal Coordinating Committee (LFCC), which serves as a "Board of Directors" for the local campaign. The LFCC is comprised of Federal employees and representatives of labor unions with Federal employees as members. The LFCC is responsible for the oversight of the local CFC. In conformance with CFC regulations and policies, the LFCC makes admission determinations for local charities and selects a Principal Combined Fund Organization (PCFO) to administer the day-to-day operations of the campaign and to serve as its fiscal agent.

The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) regulates the CFC and provides guidance and oversight to the local campaigns (LFCCs and PCFOs).

Public Accountability

OPM is accountable for assuring Federal employees that their designations are honored and distributed to the charitable organizations of their choice. OPM achieves this in several ways.

OPM maintains strict eligibility and public accountability criteria that all participating CFC charities must meet. For details, see CFC Regulations in 5 CFR Part 950 at http://www.opm.gov/cfc/opmmemos/index.asp.

OPM annually makes admission decisions for all national and international charity applicants and it resolves local charity admission appeals. OPM sets strict requirements and provides on-going guidance for the activities and conduct of the LFCC and the PCFO. The fiscal integrity of the campaign is verified by OPM compliance audits and the annual review of local campaign audits that PCFOs are required to have completed by an independent CPA.

The CFC Charity List

The Charity List is a paper or web-based display of national, international, and local organizations that have met CFC eligibility requirements. A sample charity listing is shown below with key elements shown in italics. Key elements include: the organization's five-digit CFC code, the legal name in parentheses shown if it is "doing business as" under another name, the employer identification number (EIN), a 25-word statement of purpose (except in abbreviated listings), its administrative and fundraising expense rate (AFR), and its Service Categories (Taxonomy Codes).

Sample Charity Listing

11405 ABC Charity (Alpha-Charity) (800)555-5555 www.abccharity.org EIN#12-3456789 ABC Charity attacks the causes of hunger and poverty by promoting effective and innovative community-based solutions that create self-reliance, economic justice, and food security. 15.8% P,S,K

Making Informed Giving Decisions

The EIN, AFR, and the Service Categories are included to help donors identify organizations that meet their interests and performance standards.

The EIN is issued by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). It can be used for obtaining additional information about an organization from the IRS (877-829-5500). Please Note: Some organizations may be covered under an umbrella organization's tax exemption status and EIN or may not be required to have an EIN.

The AFR represents the percentage of dollars spent on administering the charity. It is calculated as a percentage of the organization's total support and revenue. OPM, as well as the philanthropic community at large, remains concerned about excessive AFR levels. The philanthropic community generally considers an AFR in excess of 35 percent to be problematic. Potential CFC donors should carefully review the circumstances applicable to the potential charities of their choice to be certain they fully understand and accept the AFR situations for such charities before donating to them. Each situation is unique. Donors may contact the charity directly and/or industry oversight organizations in order to better to understand the financial status, service delivery record, and governance policies of the charity before donating. A listing of oversight organizations is available at http://www.opm.gov/cfc/Donors/Giving.asp

The Service Categories (Taxonomy Codes) categorize the types of services that most charitable organizations offer. Charities self-select up to three alpha-codes (shown below) for inclusion in the CFC charity list. Charities that did not select at least one category are assigned "Z" for the "Other" category.

The 26 service categories are derived from the National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE) classification system. This system, developed by the National Center for Charitable Statistics, is widely used in the non-profit community.

Do I Have To Give Through The CFC?

No. Participation in the CFC is strictly voluntary.

Coercion is forbidden. You have the right not to be improperly influenced regarding your decision to give or not to give through the CFC. Prohibited practices include, but are not limited to: supervisors soliciting the employees they supervise; setting 100% participation goals, providing and using donor lists for purposes other than the routine collection and forwarding of contributions and installment pledges, establishing personal dollar goals and quotas, and developing and using lists of non-contributing employees.

If you prefer, you may donate to the CFC anonymously by placing your confidential gift in a sealed envelope.

Civilian employees may register complaints about coercion with the LFCC and contact their personnel offices; military personnel should contact their commanding officers.

Can I Specify Which Organization Will Receive My Contribution?

By designating where your CFC contribution will go, you ensure that your donation goes to meet the needs that you feel are most important. You may designate the organizations of your choice where indicated on your pledge form by entering the five-digit code and the amount you wish to pledge. Additional designations may be completed on a second pledge form. Except for documented expenses for the operation of the local CFCs and uncollected pledges, all contributions are distributed as designated.

You cannot designate to an organization that is not listed in this Charity List. Adding organizations not listed, or "write-ins", is prohibited by CFC regulations and donations to such organizations will be treated as undesignated funds. In addition, pledges made using anything other than the assigned five-digit codes cannot be honored and will be treated as undesignated funds.

What Are Affiliated and Independent Organizations and Federations?

Affiliated organizations receive services from a Federation that supplies common fundraising, administrative, and management services to its member organizations. Charitable organizations participating in the CFC as a member of a federation may pay dues or fees to that federation as a service charge. Independent organizations are not members of a federation and participate in the CFC on their own.

For additional information on a particular federation and any dues/fees paid by its members, either contact the federation, its members, or review the federation's annual report.

How Do I Designate a Federation, or Alternatively, One of Its Members, To Receive My Contribution?

If you wish to designate all or some portion of your contribution to a federation, please record that federation's corresponding five-digit code number on your pledge form. The federation name will be listed at the top of the list of the federation's member organizations. Contributions designated to a federation will be shared in accordance with the federation's policy. If you wish to designate all or some portion of your contribution to an affiliated federation member organization, please record that organization's corresponding five-digit code number on your pledge form.

How Do I Designate an Independent Organization To Receive My Contribution?

You may wish to designate to an independent organization that is not affiliated with a Federation. Simply enter that organization's five-digit code number on your pledge form.

What If I Choose Not To Specify an Organization or Federation To Receive My CFC Contribution?

All funds contributed to the CFC that are not designated to a specific organization or federation will be treated as undesignated funds and distributed to all organizations listed in the CFC Charity List in the same proportion as they received designations. Organizations that do not receive designated dollars cannot receive any portion of the undesignated distribution.

What Is the International General Designation Option?

If you wish to have your contribution distributed proportionately among all international organizations that received designated gifts, you may do so by entering five number ones: 11111 on your pledge form.

What Is the Payroll Deduction Option?

Payroll deduction makes it convenient for you to give by letting you spread your contribution across the entire year. Last year, more than 90% of all CFC funds raised were made through payroll deduction. Payments on payroll deduction pledges begin on the first pay period beginning in January and conclude with the last pay period beginning in December. There is no simpler way for you to make good things happen for so many people than to contribute using payroll deduction. Payroll deduction helps you care for your community and your world.

Will I Receive a Receipt for My Contribution?

Donors should keep a copy of their pledge form, as well as their pay statements, as a receipt of their pledge. A Federal employee who makes a one-time (cash, check, or money order) contribution must maintain a bank record or a written communication from the local campaign showing the name of the organizations contributed to, the date of the contribution, and the amount of the contribution. Every effort will be made by the local campaign to provide a receipt to donors, but it is the responsibility of the donor to request such a receipt from the local campaign. Donors that do not receive a receipt should contact the local campaign to obtain one. Local campaigns can be found using the Campaign Locater search feature on the CFC website at http://www.opm.gov/cfc/Search/Locator.asp. Donors should consult a tax adviser to determine if additional verification of the donation is required by the IRS.

What Are the Costs of the Campaign?

Historically, campaign costs nationwide have averaged ten percent. These funds were spent on printing materials, training volunteers, auditing contributions, and other administrative expenses. All local campaign costs are reviewed and approved by the LFCC governing the local campaign. On average, this cost is low compared with other fundraising campaigns; therefore, every dollar you pledge goes a very long way toward helping others.

What Is On-line Pledging or E-Giving?

On-line pledging and e-giving, in general terms, means that donors have the additional pledging tools of the charity list and pledge form available to them "on-line" or on the internet or intranet. Currently, several local campaigns are participating in pilot projects that offer on-line charity lists and secure pledge transactions through the Employee Express (EEX) HR System. Other campaigns have web-based charity lists and downloadable pledge forms. If you would like to have access to on-line giving tools such as these in your area, or have comments to share, please contact OPM at cfc@opm.gov, Attn: Online Giving, or your local campaign. Local campaigns can be found using the Campaign Locater search feature on the CFC website at http://www.opm.gov/cfc/Search/Locator.asp.

Be a Star in Someone's Life! Support CFC

We all have an important leadership role to play this fall, in our communities, our Nation, and our world. By choosing to support the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC), you are making a commitment to the future. No matter what worthwhile causes you choose, you can Be a Star in Someone's Life. The CFC-funded charities on the following pages are all worthy of consideration, because they provide helping hands to those in need and help them reach their goals and fulfill their dreams, whether it is rebuilding after a disaster, surviving a debilitating disease, easing the transition from battlefield to home, or just making life a little better. By supporting them, you are ensuring that their work can continue.

These charities and their volunteers could not survive without invaluable assistance from you—the Federal employees who give so generously to the CFC. You work every day to defend our freedom, protect our natural resources, deliver our mail, and enforce our laws. Yet you shine brightest when you are helping those truly in need. Last year, you and your colleagues in the Washington Metropolitan Area pledged nearly $60.8 million to organizations that help make your neighborhood, your Nation, and your world a better place. You are the real stars.

This year, we are again asking you to stand in the spotlight by filling out your pledge form and supporting the 4,000 local, national, and international charities participating in the 2008 Combined Federal Campaign of the National Capital Area. These charities need your help in order to help others. Remember, you don't have to be elected president—of your country or community association—to be a Star in Someone's Life! Support CFC.

Be a Star for a wide variety of charities. Only charities that apply and meet the high standards of accountability and other requirements set by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) are included in this campaign. These charities serve a range of human health and welfare causes from local concerns to national issues, from health care problems to natural resources protection, from animal rights to international relief and development.

Be a Star in Someone's Life by making an impact with your gift. CFC charities help people who really need it…your neighbor, a member of your family, or someone halfway around the world. When charities know that your payroll deduction gift will keep coming throughout the year, they can plan better to deliver their services more reliably to those in need.

Be a Star to make your gift go farther, thanks to the low cost of running the campaign. You can be confident in the oversight and management of the Combined Federal Campaign of the National Capital Area. CFCNCA is managed by a board composed of a diverse group of Federal employees called the Local Federal Coordinating Committee (LFCC). In turn, the LFCC selects a charitable organization to implement the day-to-day operations of the campaign and to serve as its administrator. OPM regulations call this organization the Principal Combined Fund Organization (PCFO). Strict requirements guide the PCFO's operations.

By regulation, the campaign's budget is a fixed amount approved by the Local Federal Coordinating Committee. Last year, approximately 8.83 percent of the total funds raised were used to manage the campaign. This ratio is lower than nationwide average CFC fundraising costs of 9.9 percent and well below both the CFC regulation and the prevailing industry standard of 35 percent.

In 2008, CFCNCA will be conducted with a fixed operating budget approved by the LFCC of slightly more than $5.7 million.

The LFCC has selected Global Impact to manage CFCNCA. Global Impact, based in Alexandria, Virginia, has been a participating federation in the campaign since its inception, raising funds for more than 50 international charities.

Last year, giving by Federal employees to the CFCNCA climbed for the fifth year in a row. Not only did Federal employees feel a renewed sense of confidence in workplace giving, but they also recommitted to help those most in need: The average donor's gift increased to more than $412, an increase of almost 15 percent! Federal workers in the Washington Metropolitan Area are stars every day through their voluntary participation in the CFCNCA and their generous donations.

This year, CFCNCA has set a goal of raising $61 million. We are asking all employees who can give to participate by making a cash, check, or payroll deduction donation to the charity or charities of their choice. Put your gift to work every day for those in need. Be a Star in Someone's Life! Support CFC.

Points to Remember

All charities have 5-digit codes. Only charities listed in the 2008 Catalog of Caring can receive designations. Find the charity codes in the 2008 Catalog of Caring or online at www.cfcnca.org.

You may also search the online Catalog of Caring by administrative and fundraising expense percentage at www.cfcnca.org. Click "Online charity search/Advanced search" and type in your preferred expense percentage.

Expanded Online Giving

CFC-e™ offers to you our online Pledge Assistant, a powerful way you can give to the charities of your choice. CFC-e™ provides flexible and powerful tools at your fingertips to select and learn about CFC charities and to designate your donations. To research charities participating in the 2008 campaign and to generate your pledge form online, go to the CFCNCA website (www.cfcnca.org) and click on the link to "Giving" and then "Search and Pledge."

You can search for charities in many different ways, including by name, CFC code number, zip code, key word—even by administrative and fundraising expense percentage. You can learn more about individual charities, build a personal list of favorite charities, and use the system to allocate payroll deductions or direct gifts to the charities of choice. After you finish your search, you must print out a worksheet of giving choices to use in filling out a paper pledge form or an actual pledge form already completed for you to sign and turn in to your Keyworker.

Advantages of Online Giving

Every Federal employee can use CFC-e™. You can save a list of charities in a virtual "shopping basket" while you continue to research your selection.

- You can experiment with different gift amounts.
- You can give via cash, check, or payroll deduction.
- With one click at the end of the process, you can print out the two required copies of the OPM-approved pledge form to submit to your Keyworker, as well as one to retain for your records.

You are not required to sign in to browse charities. However, to save a list of charities between visits to the CFCNCA website, you can choose a confidential user name and password. No personal information is required. In fact, CFCNCA encourages you not to use your own name in the "user name" or "password" fields. On subsequent visits to the CFCNCA site, you can log in to retrieve your personal charity basket until your research is complete and you have made all your giving decisions.

Employee Express

Employees in this campaign area can use the Employee Express system to make CFC donations by payroll deduction. If your agency participates in Employee Express and you are not already an Employee Express system user, you may subscribe by going to the Employee Express website (www.employeeexpress.gov) and requesting a PIN. During CFC campaign season, the Employee Express system will allow users to start a CFC contribution or to review and edit a pledge entered into the system during the current campaign season. The use of Employee Express for CFC is strictly optional. No employee is required to use Employee Express to make his or her CFC donation. More detailed information pertaining to the use and availability of the system can be obtained from your CFC Keyworker or Employee Campaign Coordinator.

Help Desk

If you need more information about the campaign or how to search the charity database and fill out your pledge form online, call the CFCNCA help desk at 202-465-7230, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., or visit our website at www.cfcnca.org.

Where the Money Goes

Most of the money contributed to CFCNCA is designated for specific charities by employees. Gifts from the 2007 CFCNCA were designated in the following categories:

- In 2007, the largest share of the campaign was designated to national organizations. They received more than $30.5 million (50.1 percent of the total campaign contributions).

If You Have Employee Express, Go Paperless!

Employees at these agencies can use Employee Express:

- Local federations and organizations received $22.7 million (37.4 percent).
- International charities will share $5.3 million in CFCNCA gifts (8.9 percent of the total campaign).
- Approximately $2.2 million (3.6 percent of overall gifts) were not designated to a specific charity. According to CFC guidelines, these funds will be shared proportionately among all charities receiving designations. Only those charities receiving designations are allowed to receive undesignated funds.

What Once Caused Us Grief Is Now Our Life's Cause

Joe Lipari

The psychiatric episodes first started in May of 1987 for Linda Lipari, and over the next few years she had three more, each requiring hospitalization. "At first I was devastated," admits Linda's husband Joe. "But what once caused us grief is now our life's cause."

Joe Lipari is an information technology specialist in the office of the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force. He and Linda have both become devoted advocates for a large range of various mental health organizations and the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC). "The CFC supports so many of the organizations I care deeply about, it was almost natural that I would become involved with the campaign," he says.

Linda was fortunate to receive the medical care she needed, although it took several years of trial and error to get her condition stabilized. As part of her recovery, her doctors urged her to tell her story to others. They knew that it would be therapeutic for her, but it would also help others with similar conditions realize that help is available.

"As we began this process we realized that a large percentage of the agencies we were volunteering at were connected with the Combined Federal Campaign," says Lipari. "I began to research how the CFC worked, and was so impressed with the wide range of charities they support that I volunteered to help with our campaign by becoming a Keyworker."

Joe excelled at being a Keyworker thanks to his energy and passion for helping those in need. He was named a Department of Defense Star of the Year for the Combined Federal Campaign of the National Capital Area. His efforts have ensured that the CFC campaign has run successfully and his personal commitment to service continues to positively impact the community around him.

This year, Joe is serving as a CFC Department of Defense Loaned Executive. "I've seen firsthand the great work the CFC does. I'm proud to be involved with this year's campaign, and encourage all Federal workers to give to their favorite charities through the CFC."

Support Your Favorite Charity

Donors are encouraged to designate to the charity or charities of their choice. To direct your gift to one or more of the charities or federations that appear in the 2008 Catalog of Caring for CFCNCA, look up the 5-digit charity code that appears with the charity's description in the catalog listings. Then fill in the code number and the amount you wish to donate on your pledge form. See the inside back cover of this catalog for instructions on filling out your pledge form.

Remember to use the 5-digit code as found in the 2008 Catalog of Caring. Absolutely no "Write-Ins" are allowed; only charities listed in the 2008 Catalog of Caring can be designated. Amounts not earmarked to specific charities on the official CFCNCA list will be classified "undesignated" and distributed according to CFC regulations.

Support a Type of Service

Each participating charity was asked to specify up to three categories which most closely identify the type of mission, services, and activities the charity provides. Each category has an alphabetical code, and those codes appear at the end of each charity's listing. For a key to the 26 different categories from which the charities could choose, see page 2–3.

You can search the CFCNCA online database to find those charities which provide the kind of services you want to support. Visit www.cfcnca.org/search.

Let Your Charity Know You are a Star

The charities you designate would like to show their appreciation for your gift. To receive a thank you from your designated charities, complete your name and address or e-mail address in the box labeled Release Authorization on your pledge form. CFCNCA will supply this information to the federations and charities you selected. If you designated to charities that are affiliated with federations, the federations notify their member charities of your contribution sometime after CFCNCA provides the list of names for their member charities.

Become an Eagle Donor

To recognize the Stars who generously support CFCNCA charities, the CFC presents the Eagle and Double Eagle awards. A gift of at least 1 percent of your salary qualifies you for the Eagle Award. A gift of at least 2 percent of your salary qualifies you for the Double Eagle Award. Those who reach these levels will receive a special Eagle or Double Eagle lapel pin from your Keyworker that symbolizes your commitment and support.

Your Gift is Tax Deductible

According to Internal Revenue Service guidelines, taxpayers are now required to have proper documentation for all charitable contributions, regardless of size, or whether made by cash, check, or payroll deduction, in order to claim the contributions as tax deductions. Donors who give $250 or more will automatically get a tax letter from CFCNCA after their check is deposited.

Employees who give via payroll deduction and wish to claim the gift as a tax deduction will need:

- A copy of their pledge form to document which charities they designated to receive donations
- Their year-end pay stub that shows the total amount withheld.

The CFCNCA provides this information as guidance only. Please consult your tax advisor for further information.

Campaign Information

Keep up-to-date. Visit the CFCNCA website (www.cfcnca.org) to stay abreast of the campaign's progress and find information on charities participating in the campaign.

Please Help Today

You learn about the special needs of others every night on the evening news. You read about them in the morning paper. You hear about them on talk radio. Now you can do something to help, something to become a part of the solution. Your gift to CFC charities works every day to help those in need. Be a Star in Someone's Life! Support CFC.

The charities listed in this catalog passed rigorous local and national scrutiny in order to participate in the CFC. Please make your choices and give generously through the 2008 CFCNCA campaign.

One Family; Three Needs; Three Agencies to the Rescue

The Payne Family

While on his second tour of duty in Iraq, Army Staff Sergeant Chris Payne was participating in a mission to counter improvised explosive devices when he himself stepped on one. The explosion resulted in the loss of a leg and damage to one of his arms. He was sent to Walter Reed Hospital to recover, and while there, he first learned about the power of the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC).

While Staff Sergeant Payne was hospitalized, his family needed a place nearby to stay. A CFC-supported agency that donates "comfort homes" built on the grounds of major military medical centers housed Staff Sergeant Payne's parents during his initial recovery period. These homes allow family members to be close to a loved one at the most stressful time—during the hospitalization for an illness, disease, or injury. A few weeks later his wife, Nathalie, arrived, after giving birth to the couple's third son, William Michael.

While he was at Walter Reed, the Paynes received more bad news: a tornado had ripped through their hometown back in Tennessee. It tore the roof off their house and caused thousands of dollars worth of damage to the home. Mike Edwards, from the American Legion, learned of their need for a new roof. With help from a CFC-supported charity created to support injured military personnel, the two organizations purchased roofing materials and organized local volunteers to install the new roof,

Following his release from the hospital, Staff Sergeant Payne and his family needed a place to live during his rehabilitation. Currently, the family is living in an apartment in Silver Spring, Maryland, that was provided by yet another CFC organization. They will join at least 14 other families living there rent-free during recovery from their injuries. The Paynes were the first family in the Washington, D.C., area to take advantage of this transitional housing facility for wounded warriors.

"It's overwhelming to be honest with you, the amount of support I've gotten since I've been injured," says Staff Sergeant Payne.

I Won't Leave Without Beansie

Linda Dunphy, Executive Director of CFC-Supported Women's Shelter

To put it simply, Mary's dog means the world to her. Mary* spotted Beans at an animal shelter, looking scared and alone, and right away, they had a bond.

Over time, Mary's friends have drifted away. Some left because Mary's husband, Bob, scared them. Bob prevented her from seeing others. Eventually, Beans became the only friend Mary had left. He was the only one Mary could count on, the only one who loved her unconditionally.

Bob had hit Mary several times, and began threatening Beans, knowing that was another way to control Mary. Mary thought about leaving, but she knew that Bob would take out his rage on the dog if she left, torturing or even killing it. Mary had called a local shelter once before, planning to leave. But the shelter had no place for Beans, and Mary could not leave him.

"Without Beansie, I would have nothing; I owe it to him to protect him," Mary says. "I won't leave without him."

Only within the last decade have studies begun to prove what emergency veterinarians have suspected for years: that domestic violence abusers torture or kill pets, or threaten to, in order to maintain control over their partners. One study showed that 71 percent of abused women had partners who threatened their pets.

Fewer than six domestic violence shelters in the country have any way to accommodate pets. A local safe house in Arlington is working on becoming the first such facility in the Washington Metropolitan Area. "We have filed the request for permits, and we are actively trying to raise the resources that will enable us to build a kennel on our grounds," said Linda Dunphy, executive director of a local CFC-funded shelter.

Before 1978, the only refuge in Arlington for battered or homeless women and their children was a night in a motel. An interfaith collaboration saw the need and established the first emergency women's shelter that year. During the 1980s, the coalition purchased two houses and established permanent homes for the shelters. The group has provided a lifesaving continuum of care, hope, and safety for thousands of women and children who face domestic violence and/or homelessness.

For 30 years, the facility has been open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, providing a safe place for women and children who are fleeing domestic violence. They offer basic life needs (clothing, food, supplies, and transportation funds), as well as individually tailored support services that prepare clients to lead secure, self-sufficient lives. The services, referrals, information, and shelter they provide are free and confidential.

Dunphy knows that by being able to accommodate animals, the shelter will offer hope to a group of needy women and children who would otherwise be reluctant to reach out to them. "By providing a place where abused women can keep their pets, we are hoping to offer assistance to even more people who really need our help," she says.

Please consider making a contribution to the Combined Federal Campaign, and make a difference in someone's life, just as this shelter has made a difference for thousands of women.

HOW TO MAKE A GIFT

Print all information using a ballpoint pen. Please write firmly. Refer to the charity descriptions and code numbers in this catalog when directing your gift. All charities now have 5-digit numbers. Check charity codes in this catalog or online at www.cfcnca.org. You can also generate a pledge form from the webiste and print it for signature.

① If your CFC Keyworker has not done so already, fill in your CFCNCA Reporting Number.

② To direct your gift to a specific charity or charities, record the appropriate 5-digit charity code (found next to each charity listing in the 2008 Catalog of Caring) in the boxes provided (2A). Write the total amount of each designated gift in the Annual Amount box (2B). You may only designate to organizations listed in the 2008 Catalog of Caring. Write-ins are prohibited.

You may also enter five number ones (11111) to select the International General Designation Option for distribution to all charities listed in the catalog's International section (2C). The distribution will be made in the same proportion as charities receive designations.

③ If you wish to make an undesignated gift, leave the charity code blank and fill in the amount of your undesignated gift. All funds contributed to the CFC that are not designated to a specific organization or federation will be distributed to all organizations listed in the CFC catalog in the same proportion as the contributions designated to them.

④ Total the amount of your designations. Check your math.

If you wish to designate gifts to more charities than space allows, you must fill out additional pledge forms. Fill out each form completely, and mark as "Form 1 of 3" and "Form 2 of 3," etc. On form 1 only, fill in your Total Annual Contribution (5B). In Section A of each pledge form, add up the Annual Amount column (4) and write "subtotal" at the bottom of the column.

⑤ For Civilian Payroll Giving (26 pay periods/24 for U.S. Senate), check the appropriate box and enter the amount to be deducted each pay period (5A). Multiply that amount by 26 (24 for U.S. Senate) and enter the total amount in the Total Annual Contribution box (5B). This sum should match the amount appearing in the Total Annual Amount box (4). Check your math carefully.

For Military Payroll Giving (12 pay periods), check the appropriate box (5C) and enter the amount to be deducted each pay period. Multiply by 12, and enter the total amount in the Total Annual Contribution box. This sum should match the amount appearing in the Total Annual Amount box (4). Check your math carefully. If you are in the military, but currently assigned to a civilian office, mark your branch of service where indicated, using these abbreviations: USA, USAF, USCG, USMC, USN.

For cash or check gifts, check the appropriate box and enter the one-time amount in the Total Annual Contribution box. Make checks payable to CFCNCA.

The total designated amount must match the total annual contribution.

⑥ If you are making a payroll deduction, sign and date the authorization to allow your payroll office to process the deduction or allotment.

⑦ If you pledge 1% of your yearly gross salary, whether by payroll deduction, cash, or check, you qualify for an Eagle pin. If you pledge 2% or more, you qualify for the Double Eagle pin. Indicate a gift at either of these levels by initialing the line under the appropriate award.

⑧ If your Keyworker has not done so already, fill in your name.

⑨ Fill in your Federal organization and full work address. Enter your Social Security or employee ID number for payroll deduction (9A). Fill in your work telephone number and e-mail address (9B) and, if you are a Department of Defense employee, your payroll provider location (9C).

⑩ If you would like your gift acknowledged by the charities you designate, provide your name and home contact information. If you would like the charities to have a record of the amount of your gift, check the box (10A). If no contact information is provided, your information will not be released.

If you need more information, call the CFC Helpline at (202) 465-7230, Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., or visit our website at www.cfcnca.org.
